

III. Assistance.

1. Assistance in concluding an agreement with the Danish Government by which American diplomatic and consular officers in Denmark will have rights of exemption from customs dues.
2. Investigating the expulsion from Denmark of an American citizen, James A. Tillman.
3. Forwarding money remittances from American citizens in the United States to their relatives abroad.
4. Investigating for the Department of State the existence and activities of a foreign news agency.
5. Investigating, under instructions, the policy of the Danish Government not to compensate Danish merchant ships for tolls paid in the Panama or Suez Canals.
6. Investigating, under instructions, the existence of Social Attachés in Scandinavia.
7. Investigating, under instructions, the existence of secret treaties, agreements and other international understandings between Denmark and other nations.
8. Securing the appointment of a Danish delegate to the 15th Congress against Alcoholism in Washington.
9. Obtaining for the information of the Pic Del Rey Mining Company, of Spokane, Washington, data regarding the circulation of gold in Denmark.
10. Obtaining, for the Director of the United States Mint, full information regarding the Danish Mint.
11. Transmitting to the United States Government Denmark's share in the International Ice Patrol Service.
12. Securing for American citizens a prolongation of the Danish passport visa period.
13. Transmitting certain maps desired by the United States Government.

14. Obtaining recognition for new American Military Attaché in Copenhagen.
15. Obtaining exequatur for new American consular officers in Denmark.
16. Arranging for Danish recognition of the United States Shipping Board.
17. Ascertaining the whereabouts of certain American citizens abroad.
18. Arranging for members of the American Shipping Board in Copenhagen to obtain exemption from payment of the Danish Income Tax.
19. Answering an inquiry as to the existence of schools for American children in Denmark.
20. Obtaining for the Treasury Department facsimile of the official mint marks of Denmark.
21. Obtaining for the Smithsonian Institute the official journals of the Rigsdag.
22. Obtaining for the American Government copies of the Danish Foreign Office Journal.
23. Obtaining names and addresses of Danish Agricultural Organizations, for the Department of Agriculture.
24. Arranging for reimbursements to Danish Red Cross for assistance rendered to American citizens in Russia.
25. Obtaining for the Treasury Department information relative to Danish coinage.
26. Obtaining passport visas from other Legations for Americans traveling in Europe.
27. Obtaining permission for an American citizen to proceed to Greenland.
28. Obtaining for Treasury Department official Danish mint assay marks.

29. Arranging for a better exchange of press news between the United States and Denmark.
30. Transmitting testimony taken by Copenhagen Municipal Court in case of the American Transatlantic Company.
31. Arranging for the arrest and detention, pending extradition, of certain persons charged with crime in the United States.
32. Arranging for the visaing of the crew lists of American ships.
33. Arranging for visas to Denmark for Mormon Missionaries.
34. Recommending a Danish subject, qualified to act as arbitrator in an international dispute, (under instructions).
35. Recommending a Danish professor to lecture in the United States.
36. Transmitting letters rogatory.
37. Arranging for Danish participation in various international congresses in the United States.
38. Assisting the representative of the Alien Property Custodian in prosecuting his investigations into the status of the American Transatlantic Company.
39. Caring for American children temporarily stranded in Denmark, and helping and advising other American citizens in distress.
40. Informally assisting American citizens to be married in Denmark.
41. Assisting an American firm to secure a permit from the Danish authorities to establish a branch in Copenhagen.
42. Assisting American citizens unable to come to Denmark to secure legal assistance.
43. Obtaining audiences with the King of Denmark for American officials and distinguished citizens.

44. Issuing emergency passports to American citizens.
45. Issuing letters to the Collector of the Port of New York to American and foreign officials.
46. Granting diplomatic visas to qualified persons.
47. Advising American citizens regarding travel regulations and conditions in Denmark and other European countries.
48. Securing from the Danish Foreign Office and from various Legations in Copenhagen laissez-passers and diplomatic visas for qualified American officials.
49. Assisting American citizens to secure visas promptly from other Legations in Copenhagen.
50. Bringing certain Acts of Congress and other American governmental regulations to the attention of the Danish Government.
51. Giving letters of introduction for American business men in Copenhagen to American diplomatic officers in other cities.
52. Assisting the American Graves Registration Service in connection with the burial in Denmark of American soldiers of Danish origin.
53. Answering informal inquiries of all kinds regarding the United States.
54. Answering inquiries from American business men regarding business opportunities in Denmark.
55. Introducing prominent Americans to prominent Danes.
56. Assisting American writers and investigators by presenting them to the proper Danish authorities and directing them to the best sources of information which they desire.
57. In innumerable instances obtaining publications, Danish stamps, etc., at the request of American citizens.

58. Rendering assistance to the officers of American warships in Danish waters.
59. Giving advice to American citizens desiring to present claims against the Danish or other foreign governments.
60. Assisting American citizens in citizenship cases.
61. Securing birth certificates, marriage certificates and other copies of municipal records for American citizens of Danish origin.
62. Tracing lost baggage, lost passports, etc., of American citizens travelling abroad.
63. Arranging for entrance into Denmark of American citizens in good standing who present themselves at Danish frontiers without having obtained Danish visas.
64. Unofficially obtaining information regarding the character and antecedents of a Danish subject on behalf of the father of an American girl whom he desired to marry.